

Isaac Watts Ps. 102

Dr J.W. Callcott

Treble

Alto

Tenor

Bass

1 Let Zi - on and her sons re -
 2 Her dust and ru - ins that re -
 3 The Lord will raise Je - ru - sa -

1 Let Zi - on and her sons re -
 2 Her dust and ru - ins that re -
 3 The Lord will raise Je - ru - sa -

1 Let Zi - on and her sons re -
 2 Her dust and ru - ins that re -
 3 The Lord will raise Je - ru - sa -

1 Let Zi - on and her sons, her sons re - 2 Her dust and ru - ins, ru - ins that re -
 3 The Lord will raise, will raise Je - ru - sa -

Tr.

A.

T.

B.

4

-joice, Be - hold the pro - mised hour,
 -main Are pre - cious to our eyes,
 -lem And stand in glo - ry there,

-joice, Be - hold the pro - mised hour,
 -main Are pre - cious to our eyes,
 -lem And stand in glo - ry there,

-joice, Be - hold the pro - mised hour, Her God hath
 -main Are pre - cious to our eyes, These ru - ins
 -lem And stand in glo - ry there, Na - tions shall

-joice, Be - hold the pro - mised hour, the pro-mised hour,
 -main, Are pre - cious to, are pre - cious to our eyes,
 -lem, And stand in glo - ry, stand in glo - ry there,

Dr John Wall Callcott's tune was first published in 1791 in The Psalms of David, upon which he collaborated with Dr Samuel Arnold.

Therein it appeared as Psalm 4, set to Watts's text: 'O Lord, that art my righteous judge, to my complaint give ear'. Callcott included it in his later publication, Church Psalmody, c. 1803, but it enjoyed greater popularity in New England as 'Advent', set to the words of Watts's Ps 102. This version of the tune comes from the Boston Handel and Haydn Society's Collection of Church Music, 5th ed., published in 1827. Alto transposed down an octave. Editorial repeat added 2021.

© This arrangement Shelwin Music, Oxford, September 2009/2021.

8

Tr. Her God hath heard her mourn - ing
These ru - ins shall be built a - Na - tions shall bow be - fore his

A. Her God hath heard, hath heard her mourn - ing voice, And These ru - ins shall, these shall be built a - gain, And Na - tions shall bow, shall bow be - fore his throne, And

T. heard her mourn - ing voice, Her God hath shall be built a - gain, These ru - ins bow be - fore his name, Na - tions shall

B. Her God hath heard her
These ru - ins shall be Na - tions shall bow be -

12

Tr. voice, her God hath heard her mourn - ing voice, And will ex -
-gain, these ru - ins shall be built a - gain, And all that throne, na - tions shall bow be - fore his throne, And kings at -

A. will ex - alt his power,
all that dust shall rise,
 kings at - tend with fear,

T. heard her mourn - ing voice, And will ex - shall be built a - gain, And all that bow be - fore his name, And kings at -

B. mourn - ing voice, her mourn - ing voice, built a - gain, be built a - gain,
 -fore his name, be - fore his name,

16

Tr. - alt his power, and will ex - alt his power. power.
dust shall rise, and all that dust shall rise. rise.
 -tend with fear, and kings at - tend with fear. fear.

A. - alt his power, and will ex - alt his power. Her God hath power.
dust shall rise, and all that dust shall rise. These ru - ins rise.
 -tend with fear, and kings at - tend with fear. Na - tions shall fear.

T. - alt his power, and will ex - alt his power. Her God hath power.
dust shall rise, and all that dust shall rise. These ru - ins rise.
 -tend with fear, and kings at - tend with fear. Na - tions shall fear.

B. - alt his power, and will ex - alt his power. Her God hath power.
dust shall rise, and all that dust shall rise. These ru - ins rise.
 -tend with fear, and kings at - tend with fear. Na - tions shall fear.