

Auld Lang Syne
Traditional folk song (Roud # 6294)

Treble

1 There was a Pres-by-ter-ian cat went search-ing for her
 2 The peo-ple all were hor-ri-fiet, and they were griev-ed
 3 The Min-is-taire was hor-ri-fiet and un-to her did 4 "The Saw-bath's been, fra days of yore an in-sti-tu-ti- 5 The high-er up the plum-tree grows, the sweet-er are the

Alto

Tenor

8

1 There was a Pres-by-ter-ian cat went search-ing for her
 2 The peo-ple all were hor-ri-fiet, and they were griev-ed
 3 The Min-is-taire was hor-ri-fiet and un-to her did
 4 "The Saw-bath's been, fra days of yore an in-sti-tu-ti-
 5 The high-er up the plum-tree grows, the sweet-er are the

Bass

8

4

prey, And foond a moose with-in the hoose up-on the Saw-beth sair, And straight-a-way led that wick-ed cat be-fore the Min-is-say: "O naugh-ty cat to catch a moose up-on the Saw-beth
-on." So they straight-a-way led that wick-ed cat to ex-e-cu-ti-plums; The more the cob-bler plies his trade, the broad-er grow his

8

prey, And foond a moose with-in the hoose up-on the Saw-beth sair, And straight-a-way led that wick-ed cat be-fore the Min-is-
 say: "O naugh-ty cat to catch a moose up-on the Saw-beth
-on." So they straight-a-way led that wick-ed cat to ex-e-cu-ti-
 plums; The more the cob-bler plies his trade, the broad-er grow his 8

day. Up - on the Saw - beth day, up - on the Saw - beth
-taire. Be - fore the Min - is - taire, be - fore the Min - is - day. Up - on the Saw - beth day, up - on the Saw - beth
-on. To ex - e - cu - ti - on, to ex - e - cu - ti - thumbs. The broad - er grow his thumbs, the broad - er grow his day, And foond a moose with - in the hoose up - on the Saw-beth day.

12

-taire, And straight-a - way led that wick-ed cat be - fore the Min - is - taire.
day, O naugh - ty cat to catch a moose up - on the Saw-beth day."
-on, So they straight-a - way led that wick-ed cat to ex - e - cu - ti - on.
thumbs, The more the cob - bler plies his trade, the broad-er grow his thumbs.