

The Presbyterian Cat

M 46

Auld Lang Syne
Traditional folk song (Roud # 6294)

Treble

1 There was a Pres - by - ter - ian cat went search - ing for her
 2 The peo - ple all were hor - ri - fiet, and they were griev - ed
 3 The Min - is - taire was hor - ri - fiet and un - to her did 4 "The Saw-bath's been, fra days of yore an in - sti - tu - ti -
 5 The high - er up the plum-tree grows, the sweet - er are the

Alto

Tenor

1 There was a Pres - by - ter - ian cat went search - ing for her
 2 The peo - ple all were hor - ri - fiet, and they were griev - ed
 3 The Min - is - taire was hor - ri - fiet and un - to her did 4 "The Saw-bath's been, fra days of yore an in - sti - tu - ti -
 5 The high - er up the plum-tree grows, the sweet - er are the

Bass

4

prey, And foond a moose with - in the hoose up - on the Saw-beth sair, And straight - a - way led that wick - ed cat be - fore the Min - is - say: "O naugh - ty cat to catch a moose up - on the Saw - beth
- on." So they straight - a - way led that wick - ed cat to ex - e - cu - ti - plums; The more the cob - bler plies his trade, the broad - er grow his prey, And foond a moose with - in the hoose up - on the Saw-beth

sair, And straight - a - way led that wick - ed cat be - fore the Min - is - say: "O naugh - ty cat to catch a moose up - on the Saw - beth
- on." So they straight - a - way led that wick - ed cat to ex - e - cu - ti -
 plums; The more the cob - bler plies his trade, the broad - er grow his

day. Up - on the Saw - beth day, up - on the Saw - beth -taire. Be - fore the Min - is - taire, be - fore the Min - is -
 day. Up - on the Saw - beth day, up - on the Saw - beth
 -on. To ex - e - cu - ti - on, to ex - e - cu - ti - thumbs. The broad - er grow his thumbs, the broad - er grow his day, And foond a moose with - in the hoose up - on the Saw-beth day.

 -taire, And straight-a - way led that wick-ed cat be - fore the Min - is - taire.
 day, O naugh - ty cat to catch a moose up - on the Saw - beth day."
 -on, So they straight-a - way led that wick-ed cat to ex - e - cu - ti - on.
 thumbs, The more the cob - bler plies his trade, the broad-er grow his thumbs.