

BABYLON IS FALLEN. 8s, 7s.

"And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen." -- Rev. 18:2.

E Minor

W. E. Chute, 1878.

1. Hail the day so long ex - pect - ed, Hail the year of full re - lease.
Zi - on's walls are now e - rect - ed, And her watch - men pub - lish peace. Thro' our Shi - loh's wide do - min - ion, Hear the

2. All her mer - chants stand with won - der, What is this that comes to pass?
Mur - m'ring like the dis - tant thun - der, Cry - ing, "O a - las, a - las." Swell the sound, ye kings and no - bles, Priest and

3. Blow the trum - pet in Mount Zi - on, Christ shall come the sec - ond time; Rul - ing with a rod of i - ron All who now as foes com - bine. Ba - bel's gar - ments we've re - ject - ed, And our trum - pet loud - ly roar, peo - ple, rich and poor, Bab - y - lon is fall - en, is fall - en, is fall - en, Bab - y - lon is fall - en to rise no more.

fel - low - ship is o'er,